A. Subpoena Service

Upon delivery of subpoenas from the issuing agencies (District Attorney's Office, Municipal Court, or any other agency with a lawful subpoena) the designated personnel; will stamp all incoming subpoenas with date and time.

1. The Designee shall check the date on the subpoena to determine if is short notice or the Officer(s) are on days off that would delay there notification by the procedure outline herein. If so, the designee will contact the Officer by telephone and advise them. The designee shall note the date and time received name of plaintiff/complainant, or name of defendant/respondent, location/address of service of attempted service, and court docket number. If the Officer(s) is unable to be reached then their Commander is notified and he shall ensure that they are made aware of the subpoena.
2. The designee will forward a copy of the subpoenas to the respective officer's supervisor and note which supervisor the subpoena was forwarded to and on what date / time.
3. The supervisor is then responsible for hand delivering the subpoena to his assigned officer and shall have the officer sign the return of service. The supervisor shall promptly return the signed form back to the Field Operations Commander.
4. The designee will maintain copies of the subpoenas.
5. Copies of served subpoenas shall be maintained according to the court date and purged on a monthly basis after the court date.
6. If the designee recognizes the subpoena is on short notice or a lack of sufficient notification due to days off the designee shall notify officers and their respective supervisor via telephone. If they were unable to be contacted the designee shall leave messages and annotate such.
7. If the officer has a conflict with the court date, it is their responsibility to follow the authorized procedure to work out the conflict.

8. If the subpoena is issued out of a civil court case, the officer should be contacted directly by their representative. At the time they are served a subpoena, they should inquire about payment for appropriate witness fees, since they cannot be compensated by the City of Las Vegas. No other employee should accept a civil subpoena for another.
